INDUSTRIA AWARD

NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL AWARD OF THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION

120 MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY
AND TRADE OF RUSSIA

ORGANIZED BY

Held annually since 2014, the award has official government status.

Applications for the 2026 contest open in early November.

The Award aims to establish strategic priorities of the national industrial policy and promote them both in Russia and abroad.

Recognizing achievements in industrial production, this award is presented to companies that have successfully mass-implemented fundamentally innovative products (such as machinery, devices, equipment, software, materials, and substances) or novel production technologies that drive production growth across industries and perform competitively in the global market.

The finalists are announced in June, and the winner is revealed at INNOPROM.
