4.11. LIABILITY AND NON-PARTICIPATION

- 4.11.1. The liability of the parties to the participation contract and the conditions of non-participation / termination of the contract are regulated by the Participant Guide, the General Exhibition Conditions and the Contract.
- 4.11.2. In case of unilateral full or partial withdrawal of the Participant from the contract/ participation in the Event / from the Operator's services (if the right to refuse is provided for by the contract or the law), the Operator has the right to demand from the Participant payment of a monetary amount / amount of compensation (Part 3 of Art. 310 of the Civil Code of the Russian Federation), in the amount of 100% (one hundred percent) of the amount of the contract with the Participant / the cost of the services that the Participant refused.
- 4.11.3. The amount of money paid in case of unilateral refusal of the Participant from the services is aimed at compensating the general organizational, information and advertising costs incurred by the Operator for organizing the Event, providing services to the Participant, loss of the property interest that the Operator expected at the conclusion of the contract.
- 4.11.4. In case of violation of the payment deadlines for any amounts, the Participant pays a penalty in the amount of 0.5% per day of the overdue amount on the day of the actual payment.
- 4.11.5. In case of violation by the Participant of the terms of advance payment under the participation Contract, the Operator has the right:
- not to proceed with the provision of services / suspend the provision of services until the payment amount stipulated in the Contract is received, without being responsible for the negative consequences that have occurred for the Participant as a result of such a delay in the provision of services;
 - and / or unilaterally cancel the Contract, while the Contract is considered terminated after 5 days from the date of notification of the Participant by e-mail (or in any other way provided for by the Contract or the law), if the Participant has not paid the debt before the expiration of this period.
- In case of termination of the Contract provided for in this paragraph, the Participant shall pay a penalty in the amount of 100% of the amount of the participation Contract.
- 4.11.6. If the Participant did not attend the Event, or on his own initiative did not actually use the services provided for in the Contract, in whole or in part, the services are subject to payment in full.
- 4.11.7. The demand for payment of penalties is made at the discretion of the Party in respect of which the violation was committed.
- 4.11.8. In case of refund of funds to the Participant, the Operator has the right to deduct the amounts of fines, penalties, monetary amounts (compensation amounts), expenses and losses, and other amounts payable by the Participant from the amount to be refunded.

4.12. CIRCUMSTANCES OF INSUPERABLE FORCE (FORCE-MAJEURE)

- 4.12.1. The Party to the Contract shall not be liable if the proper performance was impossible due to force majeure, that is, extraordinary and unavoidable circumstances under the given conditions.

In particular, such circumstances include: natural disasters (earthquake, flood, hurricane), fire, epidemics, mass diseases, including the new coronavirus infection COVID-19 and its modifications, or the threat of their spread, strikes, terrorist acts, sabotage, armed rebellion, riots, activities of illegal armed groups, traffic restrictions, restrictive and prohibitive measures of international bodies, states or authorized bodies, prohibition of trade operations, including with individual countries, the adoption of international sanctions, restrictions on mass events, death or damage to the property in which the Event is planned to be held (the venue of the Event); military actions, special military or paramilitary operations and their consequences, the introduction of special regimes, including the martial law, the legal regime of a counter-terrorist operation, the state of emergency, the regime of high alert or emergency, other special regime, the application of measures provided for by the legislation on martial law, on countering terrorism, on the state of emergency, on emergency situations, other similar measures, the issuance of relevant decrees of the President of the Russian Federation, the adoption of relevant laws and other regulatory legal acts and other circumstances beyond the will of the parties to the contract, as well as their consequences.

The possibility of insurance of the relevant risks does not negate the qualification of circumstances as force majeure.

The Parties agree that at the time of conclusion of the Contract they cannot foresee the development of the epidemiological, economic and political situation, the introduction of specific sanctions and restrictions, other measures that may be taken by the competent authorities in connection with such changes in the situation.

- 4.12.2. - 4.12.3. In the event of force majeure, the deadline for fulfilling the Operator's obligations, the dates of the Event are postponed unilaterally by the Operator, taking into account the periods during which circumstances of insuperable force (force majeure) and their consequences will operate, the possibility of renting the Event venue, forecasts of the situation and other circumstances worthy of attention.
- 4.12.4. In case of postponement of the Event due to circumstances of insuperable force (force majeure), the amounts previously transferred by the Participant / Customer under the Contract shall be credited against the payment for participation in the Event held at a new time.

- 4.12.5. If it is objectively impossible or impractical for the Operator to postpone the Event, the Operator has the right to make a decision to cancel the Event.
- 4.12.6. The Operator is not responsible for any costs or losses incurred by the Participant (all forms of participation), the Customer, the Supplier of goods, works or services, the agent and any other persons arising in connection with the postponement or cancellation of the Event due to the circumstances of insuperable force.
- 4.12.7. The Party for which it is impossible to fulfill obligations under the Contract should, at the earliest opportunity, notify the other Party of the occurrence and termination of circumstances preventing the fulfillment of obligations, and bears the risks of negative consequences for the other Party in the event of late fulfillment of this obligation. The Operator may notify the Participants, Event Suppliers and other persons related to the Event of such circumstances by posting information on the official website of the Event and / or in the Participant Guide.
- 4.12.8. Legal acts of authorities, documents (certificates) issued by competent authorities, publications of leading central and regional media, as well as other relevant and acceptable evidence will serve as confirmation of the occurrence of force majeure circumstances and their duration. In cases established by law or an international treaty, force majeure circumstances are confirmed in accordance with the procedure established by them.

4.13. SANITARY REQUIREMENTS

- 4.13.1. The Operator has the right to apply sanitary rules, norms and recommendations on the territory of the Event, as well as other restrictions established by the competent authorities related to epidemics, mass diseases (including the new coronavirus infection COVID-19 or its modifications), or the threat of their spread, hereinafter referred to as Sanitary Requirements, and to require compliance with them from all persons present on the territory of the Event. In particular, binding application shall be given to the regulations and instructions of the competent state authorities, the requirements and recommendations of Rospotrebnadzor and the Chief State Sanitary Doctor of the Russian Federation, sanitary services and doctors at the venue of the Event and other competent authorities and persons. Sanitary requirements may include the need for testing or vaccination with the provision of supporting documents.
- 4.13.2. Participants, their employees and representatives, Suppliers, technical personnel and other persons located on the territory of the Event are required to comply with the Sanitary Requirements of the Operator, including the requirements of the rules, memos and instructions.
- 4.13.3. Sanitary requirements are posted on the official website of the Event or communicated to persons associated with the Event in the form of rules, memos, instructions or any other form.
- 4.13.4. The Operator has the right, without refunding the registration fee, the cost of the ticket or participation, not to allow to the territory of the Event, to refuse registration, not to allow to participate, to stop participating in the Event, to remove from the territory of the Event (including installation and dismantling, loading and unloading and auxiliary work) any persons who violate sanitary requirements, or who have signs of infectious diseases, fever, or who have not submitted the documents provided for by the Sanitary Requirements established on the date of the Event.

- 4.13.5. The Operator is not responsible for the health deterioration of the Participant of the Event or another person associated with the Event as a result of an infectious disease, including infection with COVID-19 or its modification, including if it occurred as a result of non-compliance with the rules of sanitary safety and personal hygiene by such a person.
- 4.13.6. The Operator shall not be liable if the services are not provided in full in connection with the introduction of Sanitary Requirements.
