2.1. FRAMEWORK AND THEME

Aim: To enhance industrial and trade cooperation with the countries of Central Asia by presenting the most in-demand products, innovative solutions, and other relevant services.

Objectives:

- To organize the international exposition that features national and regional booths and represents industrial, financial, and other related business sectors.
- To arrange the Program of Events in line with the key sections of the Trade Fair.
- To set up a number of dedicated areas for the participants such as the Press Center, a stage for signing ceremonies, and a networking platform.
- To conduct a publicity campaign, inviting government officials, businesses, associations and development institutes.

2.2. Exhibition Sections (themes):

- Production technologies;
- Energy solutions;
- Mechanical Engineering;
- Metallurgy and materials.

3. DATES OF THE TRADE FAIR: ORGANIZATION AND HOSTING

3.1. Participants are responsible for ensuring that their Contractors / Developers adhere to the terms and conditions outlined in Section 3 of the Regulations.

3.2. Show dates and opening hours may be adjusted or shortened (by no more than 30%) due to unforeseen circumstances beyond the Organizer's control, such as visits of Government Officials* / Official Delegations or at the request of security services responsible for the safety of such individuals.

*Government Officials include the head of state or government, an official of the state or government, another person representing a state or government;

 Official Delegations include 2 or more Government Officials.

The reasons outlined in this paragraph are considered to be unforeseen circumstances, and therefore, the Organizer cannot be held responsible for them.

3.3. Should any circumstances arise that prevent or significantly hinder the holding of the Trade Fair within the previously announced dates, hereinafter referred to as Circumstances affecting the Trade Fair, including:

- implementation of restrictive and prohibitive measures (enactment of legislation or other regulations) by state and authorized bodies, as well as sanitary and epidemiological services. These may include, but are not limited to: restrictions on entry, exit, and movement of individuals, limitations on public events, restrictions on transportation, international sanctions, and other measures, hereinafter referred to as restrictive measures. This also encompasses the onset of adverse economic or political circumstances, the implementation of special regimes, including martial law, the legal regime of a counter-terrorism operation, a state of emergency, a state of alert or an emergency situation, or other special regimes, as well as the application of measures outlined in legislation governing martial law, countering terrorism, states of alert, emergency situations and other similar measures, along with the issuance of relevant decrees of the President of the Russian Federation, the adoption of relevant laws and other normative legal acts, the conduct of military operations, including special military or paramilitary operations and their consequences, acts of terrorism, sabotage, or other circumstances affecting the Trade Fair, regardless of the recognition of such situations as the circumstances of insuperable force, - the Organizer reserves the right to unilaterally postpone the Exhibition dates and adjust the service provision terms. Following the lifting of the restrictive measures, the date of the Trade Fair shall be rescheduled considering factors such as venue availability and other relevant circumstances. The rescheduled date shall not exceed December 31, 2025 (the established deadline for the tear-down).
